Tomorrow night the one hundred and second annual Missouri conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will draw to a close and the delegates will leave with pleasant impressions of their visit in Maryville. Many have been the favorable comments already made.

The last business session was held this morning. Yesterday afternoon Miss Lydia Trimble of Foochow, China, made the principal address at the anniversary meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. After her address, Rev. E. R. Fulkerson, D. D., gave his usual fine afternoon address. Last night Rev. L. O. Hartman, Ph. D., of Chicago, spoke to a good crowd.

This afternoon, the women's foreign Missionary Society is hearing Miss Eunice Britt of the Kansas City National Training School. Rev. Mr. Fulkerson is scheduled for his final address, and then Mrs. G. S. Cox will give a reception for the ministers' wives at the parsonage.

The Missouri Wesleyan College banquet is scheduled for 5:30 o'clock this evening, with Dr. W. F. Burris as toastmaster and Bishop W. A. Quayle, Dr. Cameron Harmon, Dr. J. P. Jenkins of Dakota Wesleyan College, President Ira Richardson of the State Teachers College, and Superintendent Bert Cooper as speakers.

Tonight will be the anniversary meeting for the board of education, with Dr. E. B. Thompson presiding. The speakers will be Doctor Harmon and Doctor Jenkins.

It is expected that the conference appointments will be announced tomorrow.

The conference opened this morning at 8:30 o'clock by singing and prayer. This was followed by an address by Bishop Quayle. He called attention to the superior power of the gospel preaching over all the modern methods of reaching the hearts of men. He scored the substitution of the "movies" in the churches for the affectionate, simple preaching of the gospel. He urged the pastors to do pastoral work, to give attention to the children, and to be good natured with "cranks."

The business session opened with reading of the minutes of yesterday. A fund of $700 that had been accumulated during several years from odd cents in the benevolences, with interest, was by vote of the conference placed to the credit of the permanent fund for the retired ministers.

Rev. P. J. Maveety addressed the conference both in the interest of the Freedman's Aid Society and the book concern.

N. J. Moats of Grant City was excused from the conference session to attend a special meeting in his church.

The conference appropriated $2,800 for the retired minister fund. They also voted to increase the rate of per cent for the retired ministers fund from 6¾ to 10 per cent. The report of the board of stewards show ninety-four effective ministers in this conference whose average salary was $1,231 and whose total years of service were 1,431. Taking these two factors as a basis, the pro rata amount was fixed at $17.50 for retired ministers.

The question of the amendment to the constitution of the church admitting the laymen to the annual conference was thoroughly discussed by the members of the conference. The amendment was carried by a vote of 72 to 18.

Rev. J. P. Jenkins of the North Dakota conference was introduced.

The memorial from the New Jersey conference concerning the course of study was read by C. C. James, and by a vote of 44 to 20 was passed.

The hour for the bishop's address to the class for admission having arrived, the class was called, which comprised C. S. Crowder, Frank C. Tinney, E. E. McKeethen and Claude Ragsdale. They were addressed by the bishop.

The conference voted to meet for an afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. W. O. Bowers and little son, Floyd, of Conway, Ia., and Mrs. E. Cole of Cadiz, O., are spending a few days in Maryville with friends and attending to business matters.

BROADWAY HAS LITTLE ON US AS REGARDS ACTORS' STRIKE

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" Will NOT Be Played at Clarinda—All of Cast Couldn't Go

You have to hand it to Maryville for being in the swim these days, with actors' strikes and everything.

Several days ago Clarence Cook, who directed the preparation and two successful productions of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," a farce-comedy, by local amateurs, announced that there would be a presentation of the play at Clarinda, Iowa, next Friday, September 26. The theatre was engaged, advertising was arranged for, and plans were made for excusing the student - actors and actresses from school that afternoon so that they could drive to Clarinda in motor cars.

Mr. Cook, however, failed to assure himself of the unanimous support of his cast. Even amateurs have temperament, and the parents of some discouraged the idea of having a show out of town, and some of the most stunning costumes became unobtainable for the trip—and, anyway, Mr. Cook says today that it is all off and that the arrangements have been cancelled.

WEST END OF DAM OUT AT CITY PLANT

HEAVY RAIN CAUSES RIVER TO WASH AWAY THE BANK

NO TROUBLE IS EXPECTED

One Pipe May Break, But Maryville Will Have Water—102 About Half Full Today

If it isn't one thing it is another at the city water plant.

Just as soon as Mayor W. O. Garrett and his assistants got the pumps all fixed up so that little trouble can be expected from that source in the future, the rain started, and the river rose, and now one end of the dam is gone.

It is the west end. The other time it was the east end. Some weeks ago the mayor and a considerable force of helpers fixed up the east end to hold permanently; they put in piles, and ran the wing of the dam a considerable distance back into the bank; and the east end has held.

The west end has been the good end heretofore, but it was unable to resist the rush of water that the recent rain of nearly five inches sent against it. Last night the river had eaten the west bank away so much that it collapsed and today the swollen stream is roaring around under the bank and cutting in deeper every hour, despite the ballast of rocks that helps to hold the dirt. A gap of about ten feet is left between the west end of the concrete work and what is left of the west bank. The river is about half bank full.

The break in the dam does not necessarily mean a delay in the pumping of water to town, as the pipes that draw the water from the stream are unaffected. One of them, however, swings out of the river on the support afforded by the concrete work that is left out in the stream by the break. If this concrete goes the pipe probably will be broken. The other pipe, however, will be able to draw enough water by itself, and while the river is up, there will be plenty of water to draw from.

The automobiles will start from the Christian church and visit the following churches in the following order to pick up the delegates: South Methodist, First M. E., Baptist, Presbyterian. Then the cars will go on down the road to Barnard.

HE WAS TOLD HIS TIME HAD COME

J. P. Heady Was So Run Down It Was Thought Nothing Could Help Him

"I am seventy years old, but since taking Tanlac I feel as well and strong as I did when I was a young man, and can do as much hard work in a day as any man thirty years younger than I am," said J. P. Heady, a well known retired farmer who lives at Kearney, Mo., while in the Owl Drug Store in Kansas City a we days ago.

"Well, sir, when I commenced taking Tanlac," he continued, "I had been told that my case was hopeless, and that I could live only a short time. My stomach had been in bad condition for many years, but for the past eighteen months I was about past going altogether. Everything I ate would sour and I would be bloated with gas for hours at a time. My liver was in bad condition, too, and I was constipated so badly all the time that I had to take a laxative every day. Then in addition to this I had rheumatism in my feet and legs so bad that I was not able to walk half the time. I didn't know what a good night's sleep was, and finally got so weak and run down that I was just about down and out so far as health and strength goes. No treatment or medicine I took seemed to do me the least bit of good.

"I had heard a great deal about Tanlac and the good it was doing so many people, so I thought I would give it a trial. The very first bottle made a big change in my condition, and from that time on I picked up as fast as a man possibly could. I just kept on until I had taken ten bottles of Tanlac, and now my troubles are all gone, and I feel fine all the time. My appetite was never better, and I eat things now that I haven't dared touch for years, and I never suffer afterwards. The rheumatism is gone, too, and I never have an ache or pain. I get about ten hours good sound sleep every night. My general health is better than it has been in many years, and my entire system ha been wonderfully built up. I can do all sorts of hard work now, and it doesn't tire me but very little. Yes sir, Tanlac can't be beat, and I'll tel the world that it is the best medicine I ever saw in my life."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Coster Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. Smith, in Hopkins by Hopkins Drugs Co., and in Parnell by F. L. Hart." ADV.

The telegram is signed "John J. Pershing."

On previous occasions, General Pershing has referred to the immense amount of good accomplished by the American Red Cross in this country and overseas.

"In this great work," he said, "the Red Cross was indispensable. In giving prompt and efficient relief the Red Cross has won the eternal gratitude of millions of people."

Goat Starts a Fire Alarm.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—Billy Goat gave the firemen a useless run recently. Goat wandered off his own premises and became lost in one of the fashionable sections where there were no tin cans or other such edibles avilable. He just had to have a meal, so he began feasting on the insulation of a wire that ran down an iron pipe to the fire call box. The bare wire striking against the pole made a short circuit and caused the bell to ring. Corporal punishment was inflicted on Billy. He probably will call no more fire engines out.

News from Nodaway County Towns

Hopkins Journal.

Joseph B. Townsend, a brother of the late Alex Townsend and an uncle of Joe Townsend of the Mutti & Brown garage, paid Hopkins a brief visit last Monday, going from here to Bedford, where a big family reunion of the Townsends was held the following day. His home is in Stevensville, Mont. Mr. Townsend lived in Hopkins before there was a railroad through here; in fact, before there was any Hopkins, having shot wild deer where the town is now located, deer and all kinds of wild game being plentiful in this section then. After the town was started he was the first clerk of the school board, school being held in a little frame building west of where the tracks now are, and he also helped build the first church in Hopkins, an unpretentious edifice erected by the Methodists. He operated a saw mill and cut the lumber for the first bridge spanning the 102 river near Pickering. He is now enroute home from the recent Grand Army encampment held at Columbus, and reports a fine time.

The Fords about Hopkins this week were almost as bad as some Missouri mules, Dr. Kirk being called to sew up a badly cut lip for Ula Morehouse and to set a broken arm for a Cheshire boy, both accidents being due to the kick of a Ford.

Ray McPherron of Maryville, a medical student at Northwestern, visited his friend, Mr. Utter, on Sunday and Monday. He gave a short talk to the students Monday morning. Mr. McPherron has been in Maine this last summer assisting in an educational camp for boys and girls. He told the students some of his interesting experiences.

Miss Marjorie Sayler, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. O. H. Sayler, left Tuesday morning for Jacksonville, where she will enter the Woman's College located there. Lynn Garrison also left this week to enter school at Park College.

John Kissell, who left here fifteen or sixteen years ago looking for a better country, has decided that Northwest Missouri is hard to beat and is here now looking for a farm to buy. He has spent most of his time in Oklahoma since leaving here. He is a fine man and the Journal hopes he will locate in our midst again.

Mr. Baker of St. Joseph has leased the Linville hotel of this city and will take charge at once. He is an experienced hotel man and his family consist of a wife and two grown daughters.

Jennie Marie, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davison, two miles west of Hopkins, died last Thursday after suffering a week with infantile paralysis, and owing to the home being quarantined, funeral services could not be held, the little form being conveyed to the Sherer cemetery where a private burial took place. Besides the sorrowing parents none were present except the undertaker, O. H. Sayler, James Sturgeon and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fine.

Eber Collins returned Saturday from his western trip, traveling while away 7,000 miles—6,000 by rail and 1,000 by auto. He visited his mother at Orange, Calif., and "looked in" on most of the important cities of the west, returning home via the Canadian route, stopping off at Vancouver, British Columbia, and other places of note. He reports good crops in Canada as well as in most of the western states.

Maurice Wolfers, wife and baby arrived here Wednesday morning from Chicago, being called by the illness of his father, Ed C. Wolfers, Jr., who has been confined to his room for a week or more with heart and kidney trouble. He is reported considerably better and Dr. Kirk thinks he will be on the streets again soon.

Elmo Register.

W. D. King, the new minister for the Elmo M. E. church, south, came the latter part of the week and conducted services at Elmo Sunday morning and at North Grove Sunday night. He is an experienced man, 62 years old, and has a family consisting of his wife and a relative. He came here from Maysville, Mo., and appears to be a man of ability.

F. B. DeMott is the new man in charge of the Carmichael store, formerly owned by H. W. Meek. Mr. DeMott is an experienced merchant, having been in business in Hopkins for several years.

Burlington Junction Post.

Mrs. Flora Hall of Ft. Collins, Colo., is visiting Miss Zeffa Johnstone. She will go from here to Maryville to visit her sister, Mrs. Miles Nicholas.

Mrs. Mary Wark and little daughter of North Vancouver, Can., came to Burlington Junction Saturday evening for an extended visit with her father, William Carter, and other relatives. Mr. Wark has been located at Vancouver for some time. He represents a large Montreal establishment and has the greater part of western Canada as his territory.

A new real estate firm has been organized in Burlington Junction and will open offices in the First National Bank building. The new firm is to be known as the Burlington Junction Land & Investment Company, and is composed of Knox Alexander and Ort F. Wilson.

Miss Lucile Carter, who has been taking some advanced work in the Chicago university the past summer, visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. Carter, a few days before going to Redfields, S. Dak., to take up her school work.

Skidmore News.

Douglas Haynes, who has been serving his Uncle Samuel as a radio operator on the high seas, arrived home Tuesday and is here to stay unless he is called back within two years to finish the time covered by his enlistment.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bagby and son, Francis, arrived Saturday evening from Wray, Colo., where the Bagby family have made their home for several months. Turkey Gobbler Hatches Hen Eggs.

Smith Center, Kan., Sept. 19.—"Sissy" inclinations of a big turkey gobbler on the farm of Mrs. John Bell are exciting the interest of the entire neighborhood. A month ago he showed all the inclinations to "set" and repeated attempts to "break" him failed. Finally Mrs. Bell placed seventeen hen eggs under him and for nearly two weeks he stuck faithfully at the job of keeping them warm and turning them over at regular intervals. Mrs. Bell is confident he will bring off nearly a full hatch, but what he will do with the brood remains to be seen. She believes the heat and long dry spell have made the gobler a trifle daffy.

HOME, BUT STILL IN ARMY; MAY TRY OUTSIDE AWHILE

Sgt. W. R. David of First Division Writes From New Jersey to Sister, Mrs. S. T. Gile

Mrs. S. T. Gile of Maryville yesterday received the following letter from her brother, William Roy David, who recently landed with the First Division from overseas. Mr. David is a first sergeant in Company C, Twenty-sixth Infantry, and served twenty-seven months in Europe. His letter was written from Camp Merritt, N. J., September 11.

"Dear Sister: Neither of us have heard from the other for a long time but now that I have landed in the land of the free and the home of the brave I suppose I had better get in connection with the home folks.

"We landed the 4th and paraded the 10th. From here we go to Washington where we parade the 16th. After that we go to Camp Meade where the division will be demobilized. What regulars that are left will go to Camp Taylor, located at Louisville, Ky.

"At present I could not say when I will get home. Most likely not before next February, at which time my three years wil be up and I hope to be furloughed to the reserve. In a way I want to get out of the army. Just try the outside a while, anyway.

"How are you all feeling and how are you getting on? I believe you will seem like strangers when I do get back. The kids must be nearly grown by now. My, but it seems a long time since I was home. I hope you are hale and hearty and are weathering the gale of hard times and high prices. The times have surely changed since I left this country. A dollar is worth about half as much as it was when we were here.

"Maryville must have changed considerably. I scarcely know anyone that the papers mention. What has become of them all? Has the new generation taken the spotlight? Is Frank in Maryville now? If so, how is he getting on? If the bloody salt will write me one more letter I solemnly swear that I will answer it. It's a hard proposition for me to keep up my correspondence. No doubt I never will be forgiven. Will saw off for this time."

WILL DEPORT EMMA GOLDMAN AFTER RELEASE IN MISSOURI

Federal Officials Order Woman Agitator Held in State Penitentiary —Her Sentence Ended

Jefferson City, Sept. 20.—The federal immigration department has served notice on the state prison board to hold Emma Goldman until further orders, even if she is released September 27 from further prison service under the fine of $10,000 imposed when she was sentenced to two years imprisonment.

Miss Goldman has no property and under the federal rule when a prisoner under fine has completed sentence they are held but thirty days under the fine no matter what the amount may be.

When the two years' sentence expired in the latter part of August, she immediately filed affidavit with United States Commissioner H. C. Giesberg of Jefferson City setting out the fact that she had no property and applying for discharge September 27.

Wednesday, Chairman William R. Painter of the state prison board was served with a notice by the St. Louis office of the federal immigation department that Miss Goldman must be held after the order for discharge is made September 27, as it is the purpose of the federal government to deport her.

In accordance with this warrant, Chairman Painter says she will be held pending receipt of an order from the immigration department for turning her over to its representatives.

The warrant served on the prison authorities means that she is to be deported and sent back to the country of her nativity, Russia.

What steps, if any, have been taken by Miss Goldman or her friends to fight the order of deportation is not known here. Up to this time United States District Attorney Francis M. Wilson of Kansas City has not yet communicated with Commissioner Giesberg relative to the application for discharge from the fine. There seems to be no doubt, however, that an order for discharge from the fine will be made.

This order, of course, will be superceded by the warrant for deportation filed with the prison authorities, and she will be held on that until final disposition of the matter.

THIRD OF SOLDIERS BLINDED IN A. E. F. NOW IN TRAINING

Federal Board for Vocational Education Find That These Men Can Raise Poultry

Washington, Sept. 18—Latest reports give the number of the A. E. F. soldiers blinded in the war to be 180. Reeducation means much for this class of men, and about one-third of these blinded soldiers are now availing themselves of the opportunities for training under the direction of the Federal Board for vocational Education.

Poultry raising has been tested and proved to be a lucrative vocation for blind men. With the assistance of members of their families these blinded soldiers are making good at it. Osteopathy and massage are attracting others as occupations desirable for the blind.

The policy of the Board in building upon the past experiences of disabled soldiers in fitting them for future employment is adhered to in its dealings with the blinded. In following this policy, a ninsurance man and a druggist are training in their old lines of work, learning to "carry on" in the old way in spite of their handicaps. These men have lost their sight, but they still retain their ambitions and their grit.

A Little Lesson in Ad-Writing.

The copy was written on the backs of several old envelopes the farmer had handy, which got shufffled before reaching the printer, and here's what appeared in the newspaper: "Twenty-five good cows, broke to work; 41 head of cultivators, coming in soon; 10 head of shoveling boars, with scoops by side; 8 piano mares; 120 rods canvas belting, better than new; DeLaval cow, with ice cream attachment; McCormick binder, in foal; Poland-China bobsled, due to farrow in April; 14 head of chickens, with grass attachment, in good working order; 2 J. I. C. riding heifers, good as new; spraying outfit, can be ridden or driven by children; 15 billy goats, 70 bushel capacity, with spraying nozzle and other attachments; many other articles too numerous to mention, which I expect to get at night between now and date of sale."—Country Gentleman.

The Agurres have lived peacefully and happily, but no argument could convince them a renewal of their license was unnecessary. Agurre is the proprietor of a pool hall, which he leases by the year.

Mendon, Mass., Sept. 20.—Moses U. Gaskill, prominent granger, farmer and poultry fancier, has the championship for the season for keeping vegetables. Visitor Here Started to School In Nodaway's Log Courthouse

He can recall going to school in the back room of the old Nodaway county court house at second and Main streets, Maryville, at the time that Uncle "Jackie" Saunders had the only store in town, and that was half a block north. He can recall also setting out some of the first trees that graced the site of Maryville, which at that time was just a stopping place on the prairie.

That was back in the fifties and sixties. Yesterday J. W. (Whit) Kelley was visiting friends and relatives in Maryville. He is hale and vigorous, despite his seventy-three years; his hand-clasp is strong, and a pair of keen eyes twinkle out from a wrinkled face. His white hair and his white beard are the clearest proofs of his age.

Mr. Kelley, who now lives in Independence, Oregon, about ten miles from Salem, has been to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the G. A. R. encampment, and is stopping here a few days on his way home. His nearest relatives in this county are his brothers, Henry Kelley and George W. Null, of Maryville, and Newt Kelley of near Pickering. He also has relatives in the Wray family, J. Arthur Wray of Maryville being a distant cousin.

Mr. Kelley, who was born in Ohio in 1846, recalls starting to school in the old log courthouse in Maryville about 1853. His family lived about three miles west of town. It really wasn't a town, though, according to Mr. Kelley; you would have to stretch your imagination to call it a genuine village.

When the Civil War broke out, Mr Kelley, with George Null and New Wray, went to Omaha and enlisted in the First Nebraska Infantry. Most of his fighting was done against the Indians in Nebraska in 1846. One of his brothers, who also enlisted from Maryville, was killed fighting the Indians at Plum Creek, in Nebraska.

It was after the war, in 1866, that most of the early trees were set out in and around Maryville. "The town has certainly picked up on trees since then," declared Mr. Kelley. Part of the tree-setting work was done with Justice W. L. Johnson, with whom Mr. Kelley was talking over old times yesterday. George S. Baker is an other old-timer Mr. Kelley meant to visit.

Mr. Kelley gave up Maryville as his home about fifty years ago. Since then he has spent forty years in California and nine years in Oregon. He is retired now, he says, and the Wes suits him as a place in which to spend the declining days of his life His last visit to Nodaway county was in 1893, when he stopped here on his way to visit the exposition in Chicago

Frank McDougal Home Soon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McDougal of Maryville, parents of Frank McDougal a member of the First Division, for a year a prisoner in Germany, are expecting their son home about the first of October. He paraded with his division in New York and Washington, and went from Washington back to Camp Meade, Maryland. The First Division has been assigned to Camp Taylor, Kentucky, and it is likely that Frank will receive his discharge there. His parents have received some views of the New York parade which Frank sent. His brother, John, who is employed in Washington, met him at the train the morning of September 17 and was with him until the time for the parade. He writes that the former prisoner is showing few effects of his captivity.

An Electric Stove is No Experiment

It's the most practical kind of stove. It is built on sound principles of usefulness and efficiency. It will last longer than any other kind of stove, and the units that in time wear out can be replaced easily and cheaply. There is really nothing much to wearout, and with ordinary care the electric range will last a lifetime.

The principle of using electricity for cooking is an economical principle because the heat is turned on ONLY WHEN IT IS NEEDED.

The cleanliness, convenience and superior cooking quality of the electric range, and the fact that it is not expensive, should commend the electric way of cooking to everyone.

Let us show you the electrics and show you what users are paying for current each month.

Uncle Dick Jones No Better.

Word was received in Maryville this noon that R. D. Jones of Maryville, who is critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lucy Simpson, of Newark, Ohio, was no better and that no hope was held for his recovery. Softening of the brain is given as the cause of his illness, and he has been delirious most of the time he has been ill in Ohio. Often the services of several men are required to hold him in bed, as he shows the strength of a man of 40. He is 85 years old.

A Range of Real Value
The COPPER CLAD

When you buy a cooking range you will want one that is really WORTH EVERY CENT YOU PAY FOR IT. A "cheap" range is pretty likely to be an expensive one in the long run. What you want is one that will do your work right and do it with as small fuel consumption as possible and one that will last a long time. That is the kind of range is, and it is the kind that it will pay you to buy. The Copper-Clad, is just what it claims to be. It is lined between the iron and the asbestos with copper that will not rust. That makes it out-last other stoves. When you buy a Copper-Clad Range you have bought something that will last you for many years. You are done buying ranges for a long, long time.

STATE DEMOCRATS CONSIDER CHAMP CLARK FOR SENATOR

Judge John S. Farrington of Springfield Is Talked of as a Possibility For the Governorship.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 19.—Two probable candidates of interest in Democratic circles throughout Missouri are being very much discussed in state circles here.

One is based on information brought by a widely known former Democratic state official from Washington that former Speaker Champ Clark will be a candidate for senator next year.

The other is that Judge John S. Farrington of the Springfield Court of Appeals, will enter the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

There have been numerous "feelers" from Washington on the first mentioned proposition The man who brought the latest information declares that Clark is ready to make a try for the senate to round out his political career.

Judge Farrington, it is said here, has been working quietly for several months preliminary to making his entrance as a candidate for governor.

Judge Farrington is a comparatively young man, with considerable wealth, a wide acquaintance and a fine standing as a lawyer and jurist. His home is in Springfield.

CHANGES MARRIAGE SERVICE ON A BASIS OF FIFTY-FIFTY

St. Louis Congregational Pastor Holds That Autocracy in Home Has Passed—Strikes Out "Obey"

St. Louis, Sept. 20. — Because he says marriage has become a partnership on a "fifty-fifty" basis instead of a sort of autocracy, the Rev. Dr. S. H. Woodrow, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, has changed the marriage service, as he performs it, to suit the new conditions.

The same questions that are asked the bridegroom by Dr. Woodrow are asked the bride. He uses the word "defend" for "love" in his service, and in place of a bridegroom endowing his bride with "all his worldly goods," he endows here with "all his love."

"A man doesn't marry a woman any more with the expectation of 'bossing' her," Dr. Woodrow declares in an interview. "Neither does the woman anticipate this, so what is the use of the word 'obey'?

"Also, poor young men frequently marry well-to-do women, and in such case endowing the bride with all his worldly goods is more or less humorous.

"I have always acted on these theories, more or less, and that I have been fairly successful is shown by the fact that of more than 300 couples I have married and kept trace of, not one has ever separated. There are others I have married whom I have had no way of keeping track of."

Dr. Woodrow says he always points out to the young people of his congregation and to those contemplating marriage the seriousness of the step.

"There is, naturally, more seriousness about a church ceremony, and one of the things I blame for the present high divorce rate is the falling away of church weddings," Dr. Woodrow continues. "It frequently happens that young people make up their minds to marry, dash off to a justice of the peace, and too often wind up in the divorce court."

Dr. Woodrow says that materialism and an unwillingness on the part of young women of today to help their husbands in the life struggle also cause divorces.

MISSOURI REPUBLICANS CAST EYES ON THE GOVERNONSHIP

German Vote and Negro Vote Are Relied Upon — Mud-slinging Expected to Begin Soon

By A. T. EDMONSTON

Jefferson City, Sept. 19.—Republicans eager and anxious to patriotically serve their party in the humble capacity of governor of Missouri for four years for the insignificant sum of $5,000 per annum, are increasing in numbers as the close of the year approaches. Somewhere and somehow scores of Missouri "gops" with political ambitions and yearnings have possessed themselves with the idea that a Republican wave will sweep the state in 1920 and nothing can convince these misinformed individuals to the contrary.

And the more numerous the "gops" gubernatorial candidates become the fiercer will be the contest for the nomination. Mud-slinging and muck-raking promises to commence as soon as a baker's dozen of aspirants have filed their declarations and it is known to a certainty who are all in the race. It is to be a fight to a finish, with signs, at present, that some gore will be spilled and much fur scattered to the four winds before the primary decides the issue.

The high victory hopes of the "gops" are chiefly based on the erroneous belief that every Missouri Democratic elector of German extraction will forget his Americanism, love of fair play and freedom and otherwise be disloyal to every fundamental principle held high and dear and vote the Republican ticket out of chagrin due to the overthrow in Europe with American aid of military autocracy. Then there is the belief of certain designing political "gop" state leaders that the Chicago race riot of two months ago increased the negro population of the state, and especially of St. Louis, sufficiently through another influx of Ethiopians from Illinois, to add 5,000 more votes to the 60,000 cast in the state by black men in 1918. "Gop" leaders readily recall that the East St. Louis race riots in the summer of 1916 augmented St. Louis' negro population sufficiently to increase their voting strength there from 18,000 to 25,000. The return of the full election of that year for that city indicated a gain for the Republican party of 7,000 negro voters. These Illinois negroes voted in Missouri then and their votes were counted over the Democratic protest that they were not legal St. Louis voters, not having lived in the state the length of time required of all lawful electors—one year.

MISSOURI SUFFRAGISTS PLAN BRANCH OF A VOTER'S LEAGUE

Meeting is Called for St. Louis October 16 and 17 to Form Part of a National Organization

St. Louis, Sept. 20.—Suffragists of the whole state have been called to meet here October 16 and 17 to form the Missouri Branch of the League of Women Voters, a national organization. The Missouri Woman Suffrage Association is sponsor for the convention.

At the national convention of woman suffragists in St. Louis last spring the League of Women Voters was formed, with the avowed purpose of creating a non-partisan, non-political woman's national party. Only in those states where suffrage had been granted women could branch organizations be formed, thus absorbing the original suffrage organization formed only to contain the ballot. Missouri women, having obtained suffrage in part, are entitled to form a branch league.

Mrs. George Gellhorn, chairman of the State Suffrage Association, explained in announcing theforthcoming convention that the League of Woman Voters would hold an open forum at which candidates for election would be heard. Later, she said, the league might adopt a plan of urging its members to vote for certain candidates expected to favor special legislation in which women are interested.

Women of every political faith are eligible to membership in the league. In joining, however, all pledge themselves to a definite program for betterment of women in all social conditions, for child betterment, American citizenship and unification of laws concerning the civil status of women.

Frank Giesken Buys Gordon Roberts.

Frank Giesken last week while at the St. Joseph races, purchased the noted running horse, Gordon Roberts, from its owner. The horse was shipped to Hutchison, Kansas, where the animal has been entered in the races. This horse was at the Parnell races August 7 and 8 and was one of the best ones here, winning in nearly all the entries. He was also at Maryville and Savannah where he took most of the first purses. We expect to hear of "Dutch" coining some money on this great horse.

This Ought to Fill the Court.

The defendants in a perfect title suit generally are several. Forty-one persons are mentioned by name in the suit filed yesterday for the January term of circuit court by Elizabeth Moler and Emma B. Olson versus Henry A. Kenyon, et al. The "et al" includes sixteen husbands and wives who are mentioned, seventeen persons who are mentioned with unknown husbands and wives, and eight deceased persons who are mentioned with the request that their heirs appear in court. The title is to be perfected on 120 acres of land just north of Guilford which the plaintiffs claim they have held for thirty-one years. Fred R. Wolfers is attorney for the plaintiffs.

Even Near-Beer Will Do It.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 19.—Be coming playful after several libations of near-beer, Michael Maslar picked up a heavy beer mug and broke it over the head of Steve Terek. Terek resented the "overt" act and proceeded to show his resentment. The pair finished the evening in the calaboos.

Service Men Record Discharges.

Hey, Buddy, haven't lost your discharge papers yet, have you? Well, there are about 350 discharged soldiers, sailors and marines in Nodaway county to whom the loss of the papers won't matter a great deal. This is the number that are recorded in the office of Dan R. Baker, county recorder, in the court house. Mr. Baker has a book specially printed for the purpose, and in it are listed 320 discharges. The others, which were made out on unusual forms, couldn't be transcribed handily in the big book and have another book all their own. Howard Watson, who got back from the navy yesterday, was in yesterday bright and early with his. Mr. Baker is making no charge for the recording, which is a special kindness, as many recorders charge for the service.

Rev. Snodgrass Returns.

What You Get for a Penny

This newspaper costs you on a average a penny a copy. It is a little more than that if you live in the city and have it delivered to you:; it is less than that if you subscribe for a year and get it through the mail. This is the best purchase you ever made for a penny.

A four-page edition is the smallest we get out. Each page has seven columns twenty inches long—560 inches of material for you to read. Remember, this is the least we give you. An eight-page paper two or three times a week is just twice as much.

Roughly speaking, half of the paper is advertising. The ads are put in for your benefit as well as for the benefit of the advertiser. If the advertisements fail to show you where and how to shop economically and bring home to you new ideas, they are failures, and in time will cease to be published.

The rest of the paper is news of local and general interest.

Each morning the exchanges—the other newspapers that come here—are read through, and whatever is likely to be of interest to Nodaway County folks is selected and put into type for this paper. This saves you from having to take a dozen newspapers on the chance of finding something of interest.

Then the mail is gone through. Dozens of letters each morning bring material that it is hoped you will get to read. What part of this may be of local interest,, either through its application to local conditions or through its broad human appeal, is set aside for you and duly published in this paper.

Then the town is covered—twice a day. The courthouse, the Commercial Club, the city hall, the undertakers—these and many other sources of news are scoured for facts that may prove of interest to you.

The county is covered, too, once a day, by telephone. Events of interest from the far corners of Nodaway are thus gathered for your evening reading.

And you get the telegraph news, too. Each day the International News Service sends this newspaper three separate sets of dispatches. Its correspondents in all parts of the world are on the alert to see that you miss nothing of importance. They all are working for you—and for your penny.

Everyday you get the weather report, the markets, the social events. You get political news, Democratic, in the main, for this is a Democratic newspaper. Once a week you get the church announcements and the items of interest from the other Nodaway County newspapers.

And all of these things are selected and arranged for you so that you may seek out what you desire to read with the least possible effort. The headlines tell you the story in brief; the larger ones for the more important things; the smaller for the items of lesser importance. The departments are classified so that you can find them at a glance. When you hold your paper up wide open, you have your right thumb on the weather report, for instance, and so on

When you buy this paper, you pay for service. And when you pay only a penny for it, you get it dirt cheap. This paper is worth more than a penny to start the fire with next winter.
